

WAC 192-140-035 What happens if I do not respond to a request for information? (1) The department will presume that you are disqualified from or ineligible for benefits if you provide information indicating you are potentially ~~((disqualifying information))~~ disqualified from or ineligible for benefits, or fail to provide necessary information ~~((r))~~ and ~~((then))~~ do not respond to a request for specific information. The department will deny benefits ~~((under RCW 50.20.010))~~ based on this presumption.

(2) This denial is for an indefinite period of time and will continue until either:

(a) You provide the requested information;

(b) You qualify and are eligible for a new, separate unemployment claim and the information requested under subsection (1) of this section is not relevant for your new claim; or

(c) The request for information was made pursuant to a quality control review under 20 C.F.R. § 602.11 and your response is no longer needed for the quality control review.

(3) Once you provide the requested information, the department may issue a redetermination under RCW 50.20.160. The department will issue a new decision allowing benefits if you provide enough information to establish your qualification and eligibility for benefits.
