

WAC 192-180-005 Registration for work—RCW 50.20.010(1) and 50.20.230. (1) Am I required to register for work? You must register for work unless you are:

(a) Attached to an employer, meaning you are:
(i) Partially unemployed as defined in WAC 192-180-013(1);
(ii) On standby as defined by WAC 192-110-015;
(iii) Unemployed because you are on strike or locked out from the worksite as provided in RCW 50.20.090; or
(iv) Participating in the shared work program under chapter 50.60 RCW;

(b) A member of a union that participates in the referral union program (see WAC 192-210-110);

(c) Participating in a training program approved by the commissioner;

(d) The subject of an antiharassment order. This includes any court-issued order providing for your protection, such as restraining orders, no contact orders, domestic violence protective orders, and similar documents;

(e) An active registered electrical apprentice in an approved electrical apprenticeship program under chapter 49.04 RCW and chapter 296-05 WAC; or

(f) Under isolation or quarantine at the request of a medical professional, local health official, or the Secretary of Health as a consequence of a disease that is the subject of a public health emergency, even if you or your immediate family member have not been actually diagnosed with a disease that is the subject of a public health emergency.

(2) ~~((How soon))~~ When do I have to register for work?

(a) If you live within the state of Washington, ~~((the department will register you automatically based on information contained in your application for benefits. In unusual circumstances where you are not automatically registered,))~~ you must register within one week of the date on which you are notified by the department of the requirement to register for work.

(b) If you live in another state, you must register for work within one week of the date your first payment is issued ~~((on your new or reopened claim))~~.

(c) If you have been requested by a medical professional, local health official, or the Secretary of Health to be isolated or quarantined as a consequence of a disease that is the subject of a public health emergency, even if you or your immediate family member have not been actually diagnosed with a disease that is the subject of a public health emergency and were not automatically registered, you must register for work within one week of the date you are no longer requested to be isolated or quarantined.

(3) ~~((Where))~~ How do I register for work? You ~~((will be registered for work with the department. However,))~~ register for work by creating a user account on the state's public online labor exchange system and uploading a current resume to that system and making it viewable by employers. If you live in ((another)) a state other than Washington, you must register for work with the equivalent public employment agency in that state.

(4) What is the penalty if I do not register for work? You ~~((will))~~ may not be eligible for benefits for any week in which you are not registered for work as required by this section.
